COMPLEX POLL WILL COST £2K

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

THE cost of calling a town poll in Honiton could be as much as £2,000 according to the town council, Pulman's View can reveal.

A Honiton residents' association is urging the town council to call a poll to discuss the plans for the proposed community complex.

In order for a town poll to be called a public meeting must first take place. This can be called by the chairman of the town council, two town councillors or six members of the electorate.

A town poll can then be called by 10 people or one third of those who attend the public meeting. The town clerk then informs East Devon District Council (EDDC) who organise the poll. It must take place between 4pm and 9pm on a set day and the result of the poll is not binding to the town council.

More than 20 members of the Northcote Lane Residents Association have signed a document, seen by the Pulman's View, that has been handed to councillors asking them to look into the matter.

Members who have signed include residents and business owners.

Ken Sherman, chairman of the association, said: "In accordance with the 1972 local government act we want a town poll on the issue.

"These are matters that must be causing many residents growing concern and therefore we would like the council tax payers to have the opportunity to express their feelings by way of a town poll."

Mr Sherman added that he has been asked by the town council to rephrase his question regarding the community complex to ensure that it has a yes or no answer.

The original question asked by the residents' association was: "We wish to inform you (the town council) that we want a town poll on the intention to proceed with the construction of the community complex in spite of the world wide financial crisis, also that the council tax payers will continue to pay for it for the next 25 years."

Mr Sherman added: "The town council has asked me to write a letter asking a yes or no question with regards to the community complex. I will do this straight away. The town clerk has asked me to get the six names of people who are willing to have their names on an agenda that will be produced.

"I have the six names and have basically been told that a public meeting will happen."

A spokesman from Honiton Town Council said: "The town clerk has been working over the past few weeks with anyone interested in having a town poll held and has distributed the appropriate information.

"In line with current legislation, once the appropriate request has been received by the clerk a public meeting will be advertised and held. If the public decides at the meeting that it wishes to proceed with a town poll, then the clerk will contact EDDC to arrange this and full notification will be posted.

"A town poll should not be confused with a referendum and is used as one of a number of measures by the town council to gauge public opinion when making a major decision. Other measures have included a three week public consultation, information in the town council newsletter, on the website and councillors being available for a meet the people session on Honiton High Street."

Crime down in four years

POLICE in Honiton have claimed that crime figures in the Honiton rural patch for February are the lowest since 2006.

A total of five offences took place last month, compared to 23 in the same period last year.

Awlscombe was the scene of two incidents.

Between December 2009 and Sunday, February 7th, two outbuildings were raided and building equipment was stolen. Then between January and Thursday, February 25th, eight electric pigeon machines were stolen from a commercial premises in the village.

A common assault took place in Dunkswell on Saturday, February 13th. A man was arrested and has received a police caution for the offence.

A property in Offwell was the scene of burglary. The property has been targeted several times over the last few months and police say that a quantity of money has been stolen from a few rooms at the house.

On Monday, February 22nd, a van parked at a garage on the A303 near Upottery was set alight.

Residents in Broadhembury, Bucknell, Combe Raleigh, Cotleigh, Gittisham, Luppitt, Monkton, Payhembury, Plymtree, Sheldon and Yarcombe had a peaceful month with no crimes reported.

Anyone with information about any of the incidents is asked to contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Roof work prevents worse fire damage, says firefight team

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A FIRE-RAVAGED house in Ottery was constructed in a way that prevented even worse damage, according to firefighters.

As reported last week, more than 100 firefighters were despatched to Keppel Gate, Higher Ridgeway, in the early hours of last Sunday (March 7th) morning.

The thatched property was badly damaged, but it could have been worse had it not been for the construction of the roof.

Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service is investigating and said the most likely cause of the fire was heat being transferred from the flue of the chimney to the thatched roof.

Group manager Adeg Tike attended the incident and said: "The most likely cause of this fire was heat being transferred from the flue of the chimney to the thatched roof."

"We are pleased by the successful conclusion of the incident. When the appliances arrived the roof was well alight, but we were able to put out the flames quickly, preventing the rest of the property being burned to the ground.

"This was greatly due to the construction of the roof as the thatch was under-laid with plaster board, which sits between the roof and the building below.

"This creates a fire resistant layer between the roof and the house below, slowing the rate of burning and reducing the possible risk of damage to the property below.

"Smoke detectors were also fitted throughout the property including being in the eaves of the roof."

It was the second fire involving a thatched property attended by the service in only a few days.

A spokesperson said: "Fire in thatch is not an inevitable occurrence but it is an organic material, subject to different behaviour patterns depending on its surroundings, treatments and choice of materials or styles.

"It has a finite lifespan, measured in tens rather than hundreds of years. And above all it is combustible

"Fire in a thatched roof is difficult to detect and once started is almost impossible to control as it will spread rapidly, due to the very nature of how thatch burns and detection is often too late and invariably devastating.

"A thatched home can be ruined not only by the fire but by the amount of water needed to put it out, within an ancient cottage water can dissolve old cobb walls as well as causing serious water damage throughout.

"Smoke alarms are the easiest way to alert you to the danger of fire, giving you precious time to escape.

"They are cheap, easy to get hold of and easy to fit.

"In a thatched property smoke alarms need to be fitted in the roof space and linked to the others in your home.

"A fire in the roof space will be detected and the warning will be given throughout the house, not having sufficient fire alarms means you are more than twice as likely to die in a fire at home."

Volunteers plea: help plant £1,500 flowers

HONITON Town Council has received a grant of £1,500 and the money will be used to purchase rhododendrons and camellias, 50 of the flowers will be planted at The Glen during the next volunteer day on Saturday, March 27th.

Anyone who would like to volunteer is asked to meet at Coronation Gate by the Queen's Road and Pine Park Road entrance of The Glen from 10am.

Staff from East Devon District Council will also be helping during the event.

Arrests over serious attack

A SERIOUS assault took place in Honiton town centre in the early hours of Saturday morning and police are appealing for witnesses.

The victim, a 24-year-old man from Honiton, was left with serious head injuries and is currently receiving treatment at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital. His condition is described as stable and improving. The incident took place at approximately 3.30am in King Street.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "The reporting person said that they could see a man lying on the ground. Officers were on the scene within a few minutes, and despite an initial search no victims or offenders were located.

"Investigations commenced in the local area and a 21-year-old local man was located a short distance away, attempting to hide from officers. After a short foot chase, he was detained in the rear garden of a house.

"Shortly after this, a 24-year-old local man was found with serious head injuries. He was taken by ambulance to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital.

"The detained man was arrested on suspicion of assault and conveyed to Torquay Police Station, where he was interviewed and released on bail to return to Heavitree Road Police Station, Exeter, on Monday, May 17th."

Police have also confirmed that as a result of their enquiries, an 18-year-old man from Honiton was also arrested in connection with the assault. He was taken to Launceston Police Station and has been bailed to Heavitree Road Police Station on May 17th. Anyone with information is asked to contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444 quoting crime number KH/10/160.

Maternity unit talks

THE Devon Primary Care Trust (PCT) has confirmed that it is willing to meet with Honiton Town Council to discuss the future of the maternity unit at Honiton Hospital.

According to town councillors, Honiton is in danger of losing two first class health facilities.

Honiton maternity unit is to be downgraded to birthing unit status from April 1st, with many of the services currently on offer being transferred to the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation. This follows on from the news that The Bungalow will not be used to treat or assess dementia patients.

During a Honiton Town Council meeting on Monday, March 8th, councillors voiced their concerns about the apparent decline of health services in the town.

Former mayor Sally Casson said: "Honiton is in danger of losing first class facilities. It is very worrying and we (the town council) should be meeting with the health bosses to discuss the decline of services in the town."

Disitric councillor Peter Halse said: "The maternity unit at Honiton hospital is being downgraded, I don't think there is any doubt about that. I know people are very grateful to have the facilities in Honiton.

"It is a terrible shame that they are being downgraded and is something that we can't get away from."

Town councillor Alf Boom added: "The maternity unit is known as the Honiton Hilton. It is an enormously worrying idea that it will be turned into a birthing unit. A couple of hours after giving birth mothers will be sent home.

"I know doctors in the town are concerned as well. Honiton Town Council needs to do something before the services are diminished. We need to invite the PCT to explain their actions."

Mr Boom also revealed that he felt The Bungalow was suffering from neglect. The Bungalow is operated by Devon Partnership NHS Trust.

He said: "Because of the neglect of the management at The Bungalow a pipe has burst and has caused damage. Parts of the ceiling have come down. I have asked how much it is going to cost to put right but haven't had an answer yet.

"We must make it clear to the trust that we don't want to lose The Bungalow."

Andrea Toman, NHS Devon's manager for midwifery services in the community, said PCT representatives would be happy to hold talks with councillors.

She said: "We have not yet received an invitation from Honiton Town Council but we look forward to receiving it shortly.

"However, we have already written to Honiton Town Council about this important issue and are more than happy to meet them to discuss the future service. The new service will secure the longer term future of Honiton maternity unit and those in other community hospitals.

"In Devon many new mums having a normal birth already return home later the same day after they give birth, under care of a midwife.

"We have asked the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust to ensure midwifery services in the community at least match those on offer at its own birth centre where mums experience a seamless service throughout pregnancy, birth and postnatal periods.

"This will also give mums more choice over where they would like to give birth."

As previously reported in this newspaper, representatives from the Devon Partnership NHS Trust have said that they would be willing to meet in the town for a face-to-face showdown with councillors.

Drugs raids on two village properties

TWO properties in Offwell, near Honiton, have been raided by police under the misuse of drugs act.

Officers from the Honiton rural neighbourhood team and the targeted policing team from Exmouth carried out the operation in the morning of Thursday, March 4th.

As a result of the raids two tenants at each address were arrested for possession of drugs with intent to supply and production of cannabis. All four have been interviewed and are currently on police bail whilst enquiries continue.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "At one address was a quantity of packaged skunk cannabis. At the other address was a cannabis hydroponics set up with 47 plants, a quantity of packaged skunk cannabis and a large amount of cash.

"The seizure between the two addresses gives an approximate street value for the drugs of £6,000."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

BIO-DIESEL is set to lead the agenda during Science Week at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

Staff and students are hoping for a big turnout when the college opens the doors of its bio-diesel factory to the public on Saturday, March 20th.

Science Week started yesterday (March 15th) and a comprehensive programme of events has been planned.

Apart from the bio-diesel factory open house on Saturday, the general public is also welcome to attend a lecture on Wednesday, March 17th.

The lecture will be given by Dr Clive Butler, who is a senior bio-sciences lecturer at the University of Exeter.

The university has played an important role in the creation of the college's bio-diesel factory by offering technical expertise.

It was just over a year ago that the college called a press conference to announce it would set up the factory in a shipping container.

At the press conference, science teacher Andrew Colville explained that the college would produce bio-diesel from waste vegetable oil sourced from local pubs and restaurants - and sell it on to people with diesel-driven cars or machinery.

The college received a £3,000 grant from The Royal Society Academy of Science plus another £2,500 from local businesses to set up the factory.

A year later and the operation is in full swing and turns out about 150 litres of bio-diesel each week.

Mr Colville leads a bio-diesel team of about a dozen or so sixth formers, but other students are also involved in associated activities such as marketing, promotion, documentation and media liaison.

A new customer turned up at the college on Thursday, March 11th to have his car filled up and have a look at the factory.

Strong hopes for bio-diesel factory

Dr Jon Underwood, who is the Liberal Democrat parliamentary candidate for Tiverton and Honiton constituency, heard about the project through the parents of a college student.

After having spent almost an hour in the factory watching the process, he said: "It is brilliant. It looks very professional, like a mini oil refinery."

"Tiverton and Honiton is one of the larger constituencies in England, stretching from the fringes of Exmoor to the Jurassic Coast."

"If I am to meet as many people as possible during the campaign I'll clearly have to do a lot of driving.

"I'm thrilled that I'll be doing my best to conserve the environment and promote a worthwhile enterprise at the same time."

Money raised from the enterprise will be used by students through the school council on things they find worthwhile.

It could be on anything from covered seating to the setting up of enterprises similar to the bio-diesel project.

Mr Colville explained: "The plan has always been that pupils can bid for funds to improve things at the school."

Members of the public are welcome to have a look at the bio-diesel facilities on Saturday, March 20th from 10am until 3pm.

Those driving to the event are asked to enter through the Lyme Road entrance and use the staff car park, which is next to the factory.

Dr Butler's lecture on Wednesday, March 17th starts at 7pm in the Main Hall.

College student and bio-diesel PR manager Christina Squire said: "The public events have free entry and their purpose is mainly to raise awareness of what we are doing, and also to boost interest into bio-fuels."

Ready to run

TWO Honiton women are set to take part in one of the world's toughest endurance races in order to raise money and awareness for the Micro and Anophthalmic Childrens Society (MACS).

The charity supports children, and the families of children, who are born blind or partially-sighted.

Tracey Dingle and Wendy Graham, both of Manor Crescent, have been training hard for this year's Virgin London Marathon, which takes place on Sunday, April 25th.

It is the second time Tracey has taken part in the event but this will be the first attempt at the 26.2miles for Wendy.

Tracey said: "We have been following the official London Marathon training programme by the book. We go running four times a week and go for long runs at the weekend. We are just trying to build our training up gradually. I want to be able to do a 22-mile run before the marathon and they say adrenaline will take you through the last four miles."

Wendy added: "I have done half marathons before but this is my first attempt at a full marathon. So far the training has been going really well and we are both looking forward to the event."

Tracey completed last year's London Marathon in a time of 4hours 58minutes, she added that she is hoping to complete this year's marathon in under 4hours 30mins.

The pair chose the MACS charity as they believe it is a very worthy cause.

"We just want to raise as much as possible for MACS. I know a lady at work who has a child that was born with sight problems and MACS really helps them out," said Tracey.

Apart from the race itself, Tracey and Wendy have organised various other fundraising events.

On Saturday, March 13th, a cake sale took place in Lace Walk. On Saturday, March 20th a 16 and under disco will be held at the Mackarness Hall from 7pm until 10pm. Tickets for the disco cost £4 in advance from the Honiton Toy Shop or £5 on the door.

On Tuesday, March 23rd, Tracey and Wendy will be hosting a pamper evening at the Mackarness Hall. Doors open at 7pm and treatments start at 7.15pm. Tickets for the pamper evening cost £10, to include two treatments, and are also available from Honiton Toy Shop.

Donations can be made online at www.bmycharity.com/tracey0wendy. A sponsor form is also available on the website.

£1,700 Haiti disaster fund wish granted by village panto Aladdin

A VILLAGE pantomime has resulted in a Shelterbox for the Haiti disaster appeal.

All Saints Pantomime Society performed Aladdin over three nights in early February and raised £1,700.

Members decided they would like to support the appeal by allocating the raffle proceeds towards a Shelterbox, which costs £500.

A further total of £800 were donated to local good causes including Devon Air Ambulance Trust, All Saints church, village hall and school. Aladdin was the society's 18th production since it was resurrected in 1993.

Over the years, almost £25,000 has been donated to local organisations as well as UK and worldwide causes, including a campaign that helped Kosovo conflict victims, the Tsunami appeal and The Meningitis Trust.

Sponsorship plea for kids' dance group

A SEATON dance and drama group is on the lookout for sponsorship.

Confi-dance has been operating since 2007 and aims to act as a way of introducing youngsters to the theatre arts.

Sara Perry, an ex-professional actor, set up the group and has seen it grow in size and popularity.

She said: "I feel it important to teach kids the truth about the profession and instil the focus and discipline they need in their performance of life in general not just on the stage. Although we began as a small establishment, over the last few months the numbers have grown from 12 to over 50.

"The age range is between four and 16 years old but the children can stay on as long as they want. Arts are an excellent means of communicating and can also be really good fun for the children.

"Drama is an excellent way to address social issues and enable children to express their frustration and confusions. It can be a wonderful aid to teaching life skills, communication skills and, not least, socialising skills."

Sponsorship is needed to help pay for things like venue costs, uniforms and costumes, teaching and equipment.

Sara added: "Confi-dance has always been funded by the fees that come in each term and although the basic costs are covered, finance for other activities has to come out of the parents pockets which some of them struggle with.

"Being in the midst of a credit crunch is a burden worldwide but I do not believe that raising the costs of classes is the answer. I keep my fees at an affordable rate so I can accommodate children who come from less wealthy families.

"I always feel bad asking the parents to pay for extras as I know they are torn between wanting to give their child the opportunity but not being able to support them from a monetary point of view."

Anyone who would like to sponsor Confi-dance can contact Sara via email at saraperry@fsmail.net. Alternatively visit the website www.confidanceworld.com.

A better press for youths bid with new jobs

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findnews.co.uk

YOUNG press officers have been recruited by a local authority to help youths get a better press.

A Colyton girl studying in Axminster is the first one appointed, and she will be joined by at least another two youngsters.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) is behind the recruitment drive and a spokesperson explained: "Young people all over the country tend to get a pretty bad press.

"So EDDC has decided to try and combat those negative images of young people in its area by getting involved and promoting some of the positive and interesting things they do."

The first recruit is 16-year-old Laura Gould from Colyton.

She attends Axe Valley Community College, studying for her A-levels in photography, English, law and textiles.

The EDDC spokesperson added: "She is a keen writer, with an interest in journalism and ambitions of a career in media and PR; this meant she was an ideal candidate for the new role."

Laura, who was spotted covering a staged car crash at the college as part of a road safety awareness day on March 9th, said: "It is a delight to be one of the new youth press officers and I certainly will make the most of the brilliant opportunities that come with it."

"I also want to elevate the status of young people within the community so people like me feel their views can be heard and are of importance."

Her job description is to "scout out young people's events and interests, as well as seeking their views on issues, before writing articles on them".

Her press releases will then be sent out to the media in the east Devon area via the EDDC press office.

EDDC bosses are keen to stress that the role should not have a negative impact on her college work, and the spokesperson explained: "The idea is to give the youth press officers a free rein to see what they come up with as news about and for young people in their part of east Devon."

"School work comes first, so if she can't do any news releases for a week or two that won't be a problem."

"It's not a paid position in the traditional sense of the word. She will not be an employee."

"She will work on news items in her spare time and submit them.

"If any news item is published, she will receive a one-off payment of £10 for each item published."

"We hope to appoint at least two more youth press officers from other parts of the district so that we end up with coverage of most areas."

"There are no other candidates as yet."

"We hope to recruit more in the next couple of months, depending on the interest shown."

MOONWALKERS INCREASE LONDON CHARITY TARGETS

MEMBERS of a Honiton walking team have increased targets for their forthcoming Moonwalk in the capital.

Last year team members Jude Schmidt, Lucy Zimble, Miranda Fowler and Libby Pridmore raised a total of more than £1,400 by completing the 2009 Playtex Moonwalk in eight hours and 50 minutes.

Jude, Lucy and Miranda work at Honiton Swimming and Leisure Centre and Libby is an ex-staff member. They are preparing for this year's Playtex Moonwalk on May 15th, which will see approximately 15,000 women powerwalk either a full marathon or half a marathon overnight in London.

Participants wear decorated bras to raise breast cancer awareness whilst raising funds for a charity named Walk the Walk, which supports the fight against breast cancer in various ways.

Jude Schmidt, who is as a fitness instructor at Honiton Swimming and Leisure Centre, said: "We really enjoyed taking part in the Moonwalk last year so thought this year we'd ramp up our efforts even more in terms of the fundraising."

They have already staged a body balance class at the centre, and more fundraisers are planned.

PUPILS' CRASH DRAMA LESSON

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

FIREFIGHTERS removed a car roof to free four students 'trapped' after an incident at Axe Valley Community College, Axminster.

The car was a write-off and the staged incident was witnessed by sixth formers who had spent much of the day learning about the dangers associated with driving.

College student Sam Hunt played a leading role in the drama, being picked to play the driver and carted off on a spinal board.

The safe driving initiative involved the college, firefighters and police.

It came about after teachers heard about some students bragging to fellow students about reckless driving.

Police Community Support Officer Andy Trott got involved and liaised with firefighters based at Axminster.

One thing led to another and it was decided to stage an awareness day, which featured classroom-based talks and demonstrations on subjects such as what happens to the body on impact, and the dangers of driving and talking on a mobile phone.

To cap it all off, four students were selected as 'victims'. They were placed in a car and rescued by firefighters who arrived with sirens blaring before cutting off the roof to tend to the casualties.

Talking about the day as a whole, Axminster-based firefighter Bryan Perryman said: "We are trying to say to them that this is what can happen in a split second."

"It is about the dangers of being a vehicle driver."

Student Josh French has a driving licence and said it had been a useful day that had made him think.

He's had a hairy moment on the road and said: "I had one very close one. I was overtaking, but the driver I was overtaking put his foot down."

"I just managed to nip in in time."

Headteacher Martin Smith said: "These sorts of events are excellent in highlighting road safety."

"All too often we hear about people whose lives have been affected by accidents."

Musical showcase

Good press for youth culture?

THE youth of today does get a bad press — some warranted, some not. But whatever is thought of today's youngsters, they are the future. They are tomorrow's doctors, lawyers, politicians and, of course, journalists.

This Pulman's View issue seems to be teeming with stories around the local youngsters. No agenda, it's just happened that way. It's the local news of this week. And who says newspapers never publish positive news?

I must take my hat off to East Devon District Council (EDDC) and its press office for the latest brainchild. Recruiting young people as youth press officers (read story on page 7). What a great idea.

Having a team of teenagers to cover news relating to our youth culture in the area to help promote the good and giving our youngsters a bit of a better press... if deserved.

Our local appointee is a young lady by the name of Laura Gould, of Colyton, an A-level student at Axe Valley College. For someone interested in a career in journalism this is a great opportunity for her and I'm really pleased that EDDC has given it to her.

I also have high hopes that she is able to scout out the positive stories relating to youths in the area and broaden the public's knowledge of our young people and what they are up to.

Laura was spotted by Pulman's View's chief reporter Anders Larsson at the college last week covering another 'youth' story.

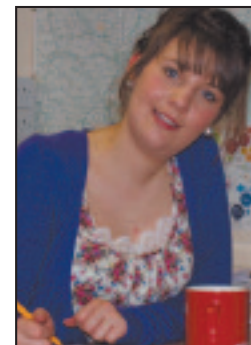

The staged 'crash' (see story, left) was put on by local firefighters, police and the college itself to raise awareness of dangerous driving after a teacher apparently heard some pupils bragging.

What an excellent event to hold. Good on the college, and whoever came up with the idea, and praise to the local police and fire teams for taking time out to put on the display. This wasn't just a talk, after all. It was a full-blown dramatic reconstruction where the fire crews actually took the roof off a car to 'rescue' victims.

Our youngsters today do need to step up to the mark a little more and shout about the good they are doing but they also need some help and support along the way.

I think these things are great and the community getting behind it and lending a hand is what it is all about.

The more the community can offer young people, the less likely they are to be hanging around on the streets and in parks getting up to no good. But they have to grab it with both hands, step up to the mark and prove they deserve some good press.

Flood plain of dreams?

EDITOR — So councillors Halse and Franklin of the eloquent, elitist and rather elastic EDDC would prefer that Sandra Semple leave their regeneration group, and go sit quietly in that little corner of their empire known as Seaton.

We can imagine the relief that washed over them. Similar perhaps to the slurry that will flow across our flood plain.

Except their relief may only last a short time, compared to the ridiculous and invasive infill procedures.

Falmouth Marina is now discovering that contaminated materials have been carried out to sea by dredging, our river is under threat too.

Tesco's PR man boasted that they would be using the same engineering company as that in Dubai's Palm, so as Sandra asks, why spend all this on our little town?

This isn't The Flood plain of Dreams — if they build it who will come?

Jackie O'Connell
Seaton

Stop arguing

EDITOR — I have no axe to grind against Tesco or any supermarket but, as has been said many times, I do object to any proposal to build on a flood plain.

Seaton continues to attract many tourists as will have been seen recently with the Grizzly 2010 Beauty and the Beach. Why don't we try to maintain the visitors we already have and encourage more to come and enjoy this beautiful area by providing more, not less, and stop arguing!

Seaton isn't just 'any old town ripe for development'. It is a unique seaside resort on the Jurassic Coast with many attractions which we need to preserve and enhance, not destroy.

Name and address supplied

Appreciate it

EDITOR — It is about time people appreciated that we have a Post Office in Honiton and stop complaining about the queues.

So many are closing and people are having to get a bus to get to a post office.

Name and address supplied

Seafront parking meters not about freeing up vital space

EDITOR — The Seaton parking meter debate is far less about freeing up seafront parking space than fuelling a self perpetuating bureaucratic industry that harms every community and criminalises otherwise law abiding citizens.

Today, I have just witnessed a car daring to park in a loading bay in Queen Street, Seaton.

The car in question did look badly parked but was displaying a disabled blue badge.

Quite simply this entire procedure will cost the careless parker a tidy sum, none of which will go back to our community by way of reducing council tax or business rates, instead there is a full team from parking warden to lawyers administering the policing of parking restrictions hence the photos should the car owner try to deny any wrong doing.

Our taxes pay these departments and the heavy fines go into that pot but there is still a huge shortfall which we all pay by way of local taxes.

Not many could argue the principle that it is strange that the prime parking area being the seafront is free and pretty much unrestricted, but the reality is that if meters are installed then locals living along the Esplanade and Harbour Road would require parking permits.

I would imagine the system would be like at Exmouth where seafront parking is free in winter but metered in season.

All the streets near the seafront are resident permit only. The only fair way of installing esplanade parking meters would require permit only parking in Seaford Road, Eyre Court Road, Upper Fore Street, and Queen Street.

So, the overall cost of this plus the increase in wardens needed to police the system would be out of all proportion. Seaton would love a bit of parking congestion as it would mean that people are visiting and spending money in local shops.

Surely, the boxes in various places saying Taxi one would expect to find a taxi stopped there for hire?

I have yet to ever see a taxi stopped with a driver on board ready to do business?

Also, the boxes marked Loading must mean anybody can use it to buy a newspaper as they are actually loading their vehicle with a newspaper!

If, the box is for delivery lorries surely it should be marked Unloading. I reckon the poor driver nabbed today would only get away with it if they argued in court that they were intending to load their vehicle?

Richard David,

Have your say

EDITOR — Planning consultants acting for Axminster Carpets have organised a public exhibition concerning 350-400 planned dwellings and employment workspace on land at Cloakham Lawns in Axminster.

The exhibition, to be held on Thursday, March 18th, is at the Guildhall between 11am and 7.30pm and will provide the opportunity to view the plans and talk through the proposal.

The planning consultants — CSJ Planning — say they would like to seek the views of residents and interested parties before submitting a planning application.

Amongst other concerns, I for one, will be interested to see how additional traffic generated will be routed through Axminster. In particular, additional traffic on Stoney Lane.

I therefore urge Axminster residents to let their views be known at the exhibition.

Steve Spurgeon
Axminster

Town's ingredients

EDITOR — The right ingredients for a perfect mix goes thus; devise a recipe for the happiness and success of a small town by a seaside.

Out of the basin scoop an undulating valley, adorn one side with metres of tidal river filled with ample sievesful of mixed birds.

On both sides of the valley dollop assorted hills and on one side mix attractive styles of homes together with a generous scattering of shops, cafes and green areas.

Add generous scoops of sand, pebbles, rocks and with a steady hand dribble and scatter them across the valley where the river meets the sea.

Fill the resulting town with all sorts of facilities such as holiday camps mixed places to stay and to care for each other and design free places for residents and visitors to enjoy.

Mix all these ingredients and cook in the sun.

The result sounds like the delightful little town of Seaton, but amend the recipe like this:

Take away all the places to stay communally including facilities like a swimming pool. Make it difficult for the mixture of small quality traders to improve their shops.

Scoop out the information centre centre so no-one knows where to go. Scrape out an assortment of deserted places allow a huge disproportionately sized store to build on a flood plain.

Then take out important shelter on the front much used by the elderly and disabled, reduce the number of toilets and make everyone pay for a car space even in the streets. With all these ingredients the mix may be overcooked or underdone and useless.

The result is visitors leave the area and go elsewhere. Traders leave and residents live in an unsightly, unhappy empty town. Will common sense prevail?

No queues at rural offices

EDITOR — I live near Honiton and like many I have spent wasted time stood in the never-ending queue at Honiton Post Office.

However, I am delighted to say that I have finally 'seen the light' and discovered that we have many small sub post offices in our area with little or no queues.

I have started using the office at Broadhembury and can't understand why I didn't years ago!

There's ample free parking, they do car tax, euros and most of the services that Honiton do.

It's a great friendly helpful service, there's always a chat to be had and to top it all they also have tea and coffee available.

I don't have to stand around in a big queue anymore, I'm helping to reduce the wait at Honiton and I'm also helping to support and keep open one of our many small sub post offices. Try it and you won't look back, and if you do there's no queue!

Tesco showing no sign of regenerating seaside town

EDITOR — I can write this letter only because I have publicly stated that I have prejudged the Tesco planning applications which means that I can never speak or vote on this issue ever again in council. This is the price I pay for my beliefs.

I have to take issue with Mr Dunford about benefits from Tesco.

The vast majority of Tesco's contribution will be payment to EDDC of £2m for the right to cross its land at the tip of the Underfleet — where the derelict youth club and toilets now stand.

Without this easement, Tesco cannot not say that it has a direct link to the town centre and its planning position would have been in doubt.

From this, by far the largest amount, some £1.7m, will go towards a visitor centre, a field with a value of £164,000 currently owned by Tesco to the north of the regeneration site (which will always be marshland) to be transferred to EDDC, £80,000 towards building a new youth centre and £45,000 towards a town manager.

For comparison, the new Reece Strawbridge Centre in Colyton has cost so far £525,000 including a £210,000 contribution from DCC.

There will also be some minor payments for education and roads and, of course, the business rates on the store which will flow to EDDC and not to Seaton.

Initially, the visitor centre was scheduled to have 250,000 visitors a year who would get free entry. This has now been downgraded to a maximum of 70,000 who will pay.

I support the centre 100 per cent but it cannot replace the 140,000 beds lost at the holiday camp. There may be some affordable housing on the regeneration site but it has become common in the credit crunch to reduce the amount of affordable housing to negligible levels.

Tesco says that some 250 jobs will be created by the store. However Seaton lost 160 full-time jobs when the holiday camp closed. We must also look to the self-service aisles now springing up in all supermarkets which considerably reduce the need for staff.

Also, many jobs will be lost in the town when big and small shops in paid-for parking areas have to compete with Tesco and its free parking.

Seaton made the mistake in the past of putting all of its eggs in one employer's basket. In the 1980s it was Racal, in the 1990s it was the holiday camp. Now in the 2010s we make the same mistake again. You end up being "owned" by the large employer.

Fine until things change, as they always do. There is no such thing as regeneration by supermarket and housing.

True regeneration is about improving quality of life — I see no sign of this.

The bat caves

IT is a curious, but sad fact that we can all too often mean to visit, see and inspect the curiosities, historical monuments and the wonders which attract tourists from far and wide and which are on our own doorstep, yet perhaps through idleness or a well-meaning but seldom fulfilled intention, neglect to do so.

Thus it was with Beer Quarry Caves. Yes, I had vaguely heard of them and, yes, meant one day to see what they are all about, but it was not until I received an invitation to view the extremely rare greater and lesser horseshoe bats which hibernate in the caves, that I made the effort. Thanks goodness I did for I discovered that we have, on our doorstep, one of the most extraordinary and awe-inspiring, manmade constructions in this country.

But first, the bats. Both these endangered species require specific roosting and hibernating area, preferably underground or in dark building and lofts, and caves, such as the Beer Quarry Caves, with their constant temperature of around 10C, offer an ideal location.

Here the two species hibernate during the winter months, suspended from the walls or vault roofs, to emerge in the spring. Hitherto, little has been known about their hunting locations and habits, but now through ringing and the use of minute radio receivers a much clearer picture is emerging.

The greater horseshoe bat flies low to hunt its prey, the larger beetles such as cockchafer and dor-beetles, and alights on the ground to eat them, while the much smaller and lighter lesser horseshoe bat has a higher, more fluttering flight with periods of gliding and hunts for small moths.

All this, and much more information, was imparted by bat conservationist Dr Fiona Matthews who, assisted by Pete Youngman, Projects Officer for the E.Devon AONB, and John Scott who manages the caves, led a party of about 20 invited visitors one cool evening last week. Wearing protective helmets and using red light torches to ensure the bats were not disturbed, we ventured into the cave's entrance and another world.

For 2,000 years men, working 200 feet underground and for up to 14 hours a day, quarried the stone, hacking out huge blocks which were dragged hundreds of miles by horse-drawn wagons, or sent by sea from Beer beach. The only light came from flickering candles, and the noise, as hundreds of men hacked at the stone with picks must have been deafening. One of the most fascinating aspects is the historical progression from the pillared entrance to the caves created by the Romans, via the square Saxon outlines as one progresses ever deeper into the darkness, thence to Norman arches.

The caves are immense, covering 75 acres, of tunnels and chambers, and in the immense, almost tangible, darkness the only sound is the faint drip of water. John Scott told me that there have been several unexplained "occurrences" with visitors. One, who took a photograph of his family, later discovered the outline of a boy in mediaeval costume when he examined the print, while on another occasion a woman almost collapsed, telling her husband that she had distinctly seen a group of people, clad in Tudor clothing, kneeling in prayer in a chamber, one which had been used for worship by Catholics facing persecution.

Where was the quarried stone used? Over the centuries, Beer Quarry stone has helped to build numerous cathedrals, Norman forts, St Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London and many other grand and awe-inspiring buildings throughout the land. The stone has even been shipped to America.

Today, visitors can tour the caves under guidance from Easter to October, each tour lasting an hour. Near the entrance is a museum of artefacts, including basic hand tools used to excavate the stone, and also a late 15th Century stone window removed from a Beer church when it was "restored" by the Victorians.

The entire underground system has not yet been fully explored or excavated and there are, as John Scott, told me, numerous chambers and holes to be explored. One such, a chamber sealed for 400 years, was found to contain footprints in the rubble, tools and even a wooden box, while coins and artefacts from Roman to modern times are regularly discovered.

Team build activity day

EAST Devon's future mechanics have taken part in a team building exercise at Bicton College.

The motor vehicle maintenance students from Petroc's Honiton campus took part in a day of outdoor activities at the college recently.

Otto Sinclair, organiser of the trip and motor vehicle lecturer, said: "Most agreed that canoeing had been the highlight of the day and with no reports of man overboard I felt the students had really benefitted from their experience.

"These types of activities help the bonding between the students which in turn helps them to work together on their motor vehicle course. It also takes them out of their comfort zone and helps them to overcome fears and perceptions and try something different."

Fledgling village shop takes best dressed title

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A FLEDGLING shop in Beer has scooped Beer Forum's Best Decorated Business shield for 2009.

Gift shop Lily Brown opened up during the height of the recession but is going from strength to strength and is already looking to expand.

Owner Melanie Adkin said: "We are thrilled to have won this shield, a year ago we were not even open, and so to win something already is really encouraging for us.

"Opening a shop in a recession may have seemed a mad idea, but it has always been our dream and we are determined to make it work.

"We would not be able to do this type of business in Beer without the local support and we would like to thank everyone, including visitors, for being so positive about our new venture.

"People seem to enjoy shopping in smaller, unique shops, rather than the high street and we will strive to keep bringing in new and fresh ideas.

"Being locals ourselves, we know how vital shops are for keeping the village alive and it is so nice to be opening them in Beer when all the time they seem to be closing.

"We are very excited about the year ahead, as we are taking on the ladies clothing shop next door to our existing home and gift shop as well as moving our children's clothing over to next door."

Ladies make Easter cards

THE Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute met in the Methodist old schoolroom on a bright and sunny afternoon in which 20 members attended and there were three visitors.

The items discussed were the forthcoming group meeting which is being held at Feniton and Bucknell Evening Women's Institute plus ideas from the members regarding a summer outing.

After the business was discussed it was time for the speaker, who was Jacquie Wheatley, who gave a demonstration of Easter card making.

The members were then invited to produce a card.

After tea was served Jacquie Wheatley judged the Flower of the Month and also the Competition of the Month.

The next meeting will be on April 12th when the speaker will be Mr Cotton talking about the RSPB.

Opera show

AT the recent annual meeting of Axminster Operatic Society — held in the Conservative Club — David Swift and Andrew Moulding were unanimously re-elected as president and vice president of the society.

The group was then given details of the next production to be held in November 2010 which will be Showboat written by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II.

Showboat contains the best of everything — a great story, moving lyrics and music that includes 'Ol' Man River and Can't help Lovin'.

Nick Lawrence and Rob Preece, as director and musical director, are going to make this show one of the Society's best ever.

Prison visiting talk opens eyes of Women's Institute

ALL Saints and District Women's Institute met on Tuesday, March 2nd for a riveting talk on prison visiting.

Jean Watson, a retired teacher, got involved in this work after a visit to the school in Surrey of some prisoners to talk to the boys, and has now been doing so for many years.

She gave members some interesting statistics; such as it costs £40,000 per year to keep a person in prison — and £1.85 a day to feed a prisoner; 20 per cent are foreign nationals; 20 per cent are under 21; 25 per cent of women were in care as a child; 60 per cent of women have a drug problem and 50 per cent of women have no or very few visits.

Prison visiting comes under the prison chaplaincy — which is multi-faith.

Jean was at pains to demonstrate how lonely, noisy, frustrating and often violent prison life can be.

In fact there are at present 160,000 children who have a parent in prison.

Despite the fact that there are possibilities of going home for a weekend on license later in a sentence, this often creates more problems.

Jean emphasised two particular areas where the chaplaincy works, and with which she is particularly involved.

Both help prisoners to cope with the sense of loss and to prepare for the future.

All prisoners have to work, or follow educational courses.

One programme is aimed at Restorative Justice — to restore damage both to themselves and to their victims.

The aim is to enable them to take responsibility for what they have done.

Moving on is particularly geared to preparing them for the outside world after prison which can seem a very alien and intimidating place.

Angel Tree is an initiative for buying a Christmas present for all children who have a parent in prison, and who would otherwise go without. This is very rewarding.

This talk was not only interesting, but very challenging as the group all entered a very alien world.

Next month there will be a meeting on April 6th at 7.30pm — a sure sign that spring and summer are approaching — in All Saints Village Hall.

This will be an open evening, so all are welcome — both men and women — at a cost of £2.

Rod Lawrence will be talking on The Wildlife of the Exe Valley.

◆ AXE Vale Canoe Club held its annual canoe race along the River Axe recently. Starting at Whitford the canoeists paddled their way down the river Axe to finish at the yacht club at Axmouth. Some of the competitors are pictured as they set off from Whitford

Folk night on cracking form

JURASSIC Folk's acoustic night was held at The Grove, Seaton, on February 17th.

This month was, to a certain extent, a blessed relief after the rather hectic time over Christmas, but what the group lacked in quantity they made up for in quality.

Amongst the performers, Ted, the bard himself, was in cracking form with great songs and brilliant comic poetry, Rob Wheaton was sublime and Machine Gun Mike G was slightly more relaxed compared to his frenetic performance last month.

And a welcome new face was Andrew Mycroft who runs the Honiton Folk Dance Club, and he gave the group some enervating dance tunes on the accordion.

Everyone is welcome. Admission is free and more information is available on 01297 20064 or at www.eastdevonfolk.org.

Needlework

CAROL Tanner — one of the members of the West Country Embroiderers Ottery St Mary Group — showed members how to do blanket applique.

Pieces of coloured blanket material and felt were cut out and applied to a silky grosgrain type of material and embroidered in a Jacobean style.

Next month Arline Hawkes will lead the group dressing peg dolls.

The group meets at The Institute, Ottery St Mary, on the first Monday in the month from 10.30am to 3.30pm.

Anyone interested in joining the needlework group who would like more information should contact Pat Snelling on 01404 812651.

THE BEST FOR QUALITY AND VALUE IN THE SOUTH WEST

Pulman's

the churches

With Nigel Speller

THIS week's column begins with words from Rev Linda Chester, of the Sidmouth and Bridport Methodist Circuit.

She said: "The other Friday I was speaking at the Women's World Day of Prayer Service in Colyton Methodist Church. This annual service is always special; prepared by women of a different country each year, providing information about the country and uniting us in prayerful support across the world.

"This year, the beautiful service was prepared by the women of the Cameroon. It was quite amazing to think that millions of Christians across 170 nations were gathering together on that Friday, all using the same service and united in their prayers.

"Prayer is a powerful gift which unites us across distance, culture, language, gender, denomination, to mention a few.

"Praise God for the gift of prayer; whoever we are, wherever we are, at all times and in all places, we can always pray. And God always hears our prayers."

News from Honiton comes next, on March 27th, St Paul's Church is organizing a quiz with bangers and mash in the Mackarness Hall — the first event since the hall was reopened following the handover from East Devon District Council. Work remains to be done on the hall and the church council plans to make improvements to the kitchen floor.

At St Paul's Church itself, coffee mornings continue every Tuesday and Saturday, and additionally on the last Saturday of the month there is the popular homemade cake stall.

Looking ahead to the summer,

Holiday Club 2010 will run from July 26th – 30th at St Michael's Church, Honiton, transformed into Rocky's Plaice, but help is needed so please contact Rose on 01404 41616 or rosenmarylard@yahoo.co.uk.

The Mothers' Union is holding its Triennial Service at Exeter Cathedral on March 20th — if anyone wishes to go contact the local branch secretary.

Coming east, Musbury parish is planning ahead for the annual church meeting in the village hall on April 15th, where more church council members will be sought. The annual Easter egg hunt will follow the Easter Day service but children must be accompanied by an adult. On May 2nd there is a rogationtide service in church to which animals, birds and other pets are invited. Come and hear the birds sing.

This column tries to offer something for all our readers and this week there is something for those who have an iPhone, and wish to use it in connection with their rosary prayers. The programme goes by the title of the Prayer Bead App and is designed by Premier Christian Media. It is reasonably priced and intended for anyone who prays or meditates.

Those in the east of the area close to the county boundary will know and many will have experienced the ministry of the Community of St Francis at Compton Durville, Somerset. News comes this week that the community there is moving after Pentecost to a smaller house in another rural diocese.

Lent events continue at all churches and details will be on local notices and posters. At Colyton, on Tuesdays, publication day for this newspaper, there are regular Lent lunches at the Colyton Methodist Church Hall in King Street. All proceeds are in support of Action Aid.

Following Sunday's Mother's day services at churches area-wide, in three weeks' time comes Palm Sunday and the distribution of palm crosses often accompanied by a local donkey in church processions.

For Holy Week there are special church posters about services in many churches every day of that week. The Archdeacon of Exeter will be spending much of Holy Week with the churches of the Colyton Benefice, and preaching in a different church each day.

The Bishop of Exeter, speaking recently in the House of Lords, sought further action by the Government to solve the issue of the "rain tax" which allows water companies to impose heavy new taxes for the disposal of surface water.

At present it is possible for churches and community groups to receive a discount but this is not mandatory and may involve for them swingeing increases amounting to over 500 per cent over three years.

Now about getting some money back — from the Inland Revenue! If churches and others, still have Gift Aid donations from 2004-05 and 2005-06 on which they have not yet recovered Gift Aid, do it now.

From April 1st 2010 Gift Aid has to be recovered within four years from the end of the accounting period (or for charitable trusts, within four years from the end of the tax year) to which it applies, rather than six years as has been previously been the case. For more information, go direct to www.hmrc.gov.uk/charities/gift_aid/claim.htm.

Help and care when you need it

Thistlegate House

The quality and equally the quantity of the staff that are employed within a residential care home is fundamental and vital for the sustained provision of high quality personal and individualistic care. Not only do they need to be highly trained in formal nationally recognised and measurable qualifications but also need special character qualities and everyday social skills together with an appreciation of the older generation, whose morals and standards may well differ from more recent trends. Effective communication skills is one of the most important qualities as without this particular skill proper understanding of the clients needs and wishes will not be understood and therefore the quality of care will suffer. Patience, empathy, commitment, resolve and an overall sense and desire to care is paramount.

At Thistlegate House we go to exacting lengths to firstly recruit the required calibre of staff and then provide them with the on-going training that will enable them to provide the very finest care for our clients. We regard our care team as exceptional and we are proud that each and every member of our team possess all of the above qualities together with total dedication and commitment. Although the quality of care that we provide is excellent we are never complacent and we continue to strive for ever increasing standards of care and a better understanding of our clients needs and wishes.

Seaton Abbeyfield Society

The aim of the Society is to provide sheltered housing for lonely, frail, elderly people, who are looking for security and companionship.

In Seaton there is a very attractive and comfortable home, offering individual rooms many with en-suite facilities, which can be furnished with a resident's own furniture. A resident housekeeper provides main meals.

At present there is a vacancy in the home and further information can be obtained from -

THE SEATON ABBEYFIELD SOCIETY

The Abbeyfield movement consists of a number of individual locally run and locally focused Societies which to assist elderly people who are finding the pressures of daily life increasingly difficult. Each Society provides individual accommodation for each resident, and a resident housekeeper provides two meals per day and practical and pastoral support

Are you an elderly person, fed up with living alone and trying to cope with running a home but do not want full-time care?

The Abbeyfield Society has the answer for you!

Daley Knight

Peter Smart started his career in show business in 1977 as a Bluecoat based in Paignton. He then moved on to Butlins as a Redcoat for two seasons at the Skegness camp. From 1980 he worked summer seasons in Whitby, Morcombe and Croyde Bay (North Devon) where he met his wife (he's never been back!).

During the winter he toured the pubs and clubs with a cabaret act singing and doing impressions, it was at this time he became an Equity member using the stage name Daley Knight. This opened up TV and theatre and Peter did some amazing jobs including being on stage in village scenes with The Royal Ballet and also with the Russian Kirov opera when they visited the UK for a short rare tour.

TV work included rehearsing the Price is Right when the late Leslie Crowther was the host and Crossroads, when he was a double for one of the main actors, riding a motorbike.

When marrying in 1986 Peter realised with a little persuasion from his new wife and mother that he needed to settle down for a while with a "proper job". It took a while to agree, but in 1992 he commenced nurse training at Walsall Manor Hospital and Wolverhampton University. In 1995 he became Peter Smart RN.Dip.HE. and began to work as a full time nurse.

Now Peter has retired to live in Axminster, he has started to sing again and having worked in care homes as a nurse and on many occasions singing for the residents, he has decided to bring his unique style to care homes in the area.

Peter's main aim is to share some fun and laughter and encourage the residents to join in with singing and playing simple percussion instruments.

Abbeyfield

Where older people find care in housing

SEATON ABBEYFIELD SOCIETY

Seaton Abbeyfield Society has a house Martindale in the quiet residential road Meadow Road Seaton. We offer companionship, and a relief from the chore of domestic duties to elderly people who are finding it more difficult to live alone.

We have a vacancy at Martindale. If you are looking for a home where you will find companionship and a respite from running your own home, this could be for you.

lection of wines to compliment the menu, with something to suit brewers are rotated for variety. In fact the Kingfisher Inn has featured in the CAMRA Good Beer Guide for the past two years.

WIN! EASTER HOLIDAY CLUB PLACES

LEISURE East Devon (LED) has another two weeks of active Easter fun for children planned at its Kidzmix Day Camps throughout East Devon and is offering Pulman's View From readers the chance to win one of three free Day Camp days at an LED centre of your choice.

If you're aged between 5 and 11 you're sure to enjoy the wide range of activities on offer from sports and fitness fun to arts and crafts, dancing, Wii games, discos and much more.

Kidzmix Day Camps are running between 6-9 April and 12-16 April at Honiton Swimming and Leisure Centre, Ottery St Mary Leisure Centre, Axe Valley Leisure Centre, Sidmouth Leisure Centre & Swimming Pool, as well as Exmouth Tennis and Leisure Centre. The first of the two weeks in the Day Camps is set to be Easter-themed and the second week will feature a Robin Hood theme, with plenty of opportunity to take part in the popular archery sessions! Day Camp programmes run from 8.30am to 5pm and both full and half days are available so whilst parents are busy at work, youngsters can be making new friends, getting active and having lots of fun.

For Kidzmix fun in smaller measures, Pick 'n' Mix sessions are available in our Honiton, Sidmouth and Exmouth facilities. These include FunSplash with inflatables, Waterwalkers and themed parties. Another option for children who love sport is attending one of our Sportzones, which offer high quality coaching in sports such as football, swimming and tennis.

If you're not lucky enough to win one of our three Day Camp prizes, we'd still love to see you at one of our centres during half term! Pre-booking is best but you can turn up on the day providing we have spaces left. Prices start from as little as £1.20* for Pick 'n' Mix activities. 50% discounts on Kidzmix Day Camp prices are available for Active 317 members.

And finally, a boring but very important fact for Mums and Dads is that all Kidzmix staff are fully CRB checked and the full day-care Kidzmix settings are Ofsted registered.

For full information on activities and timetables at each centre, visit www.ledleisure.co.uk/Kidzone/ or speak to Catherine Potter on 01404 814317.

For your chance to win one of three free Kidzmix Day Camp days at an LED leisure centre of your choice, see if you can spot all five of the Robin Hood related words in our wordsearch:

The Government Boiler Scrappage Scheme

BOILERScrappageScheme.co.uk is for families and homeowners to access up-to-date information on the UK's first-ever boiler trade-in initiative. The Boiler Scrappage Scheme is designed to encourage homeowners to upgrade the energy performance of their heating and hot water systems by receiving a £400 cash incentive towards the supply-and-fit of a brand new boiler when scrapping their old one.

The majority of homeowners aren't aware of the age or condition of their existing boiler, yet the boiler is one of the most important installations in the home. It's a safe bet that your current boiler is out-of-guarantee, inefficient and costing you extra money to run. New, efficient boilers cost less to run, providing you with the temperatures you want and is covered under the supplier's guarantee.

Renault's van range: more efficient, comfortable and economical than ever

RENAULT has been the undisputed leader of western Europe's commercial vehicle market for the past 12 years, and a market share of 14.81 per cent in 2009 put the company in a good position to resist the sector's downturn (down 28 per cent in 2009).

To consolidate its number one status, Renault is launching no fewer than three new models this year as it renews and upgrades its range with the introduction of New Master, Traffic Phase 3 and New Kangoo Van Maxi.

The flagship of Renault's commercial vehicle range is New Master, boasting bold styling which mirrors its rugged build, plus an entirely redesigned interior to ensure exceptional comfort and storage capacity.

The range's new 2.3 dCi engine is available in a choice of three power outputs (100, 125 and 150 hp). With an average fuel economy gain over the outgoing Master range of up to 4.1 mpg, the front-wheel drive panel van versions of New Master return impressive NEDC combined cycle fuel consumption from 33 mpg. Servicing costs have also been cut by 28 per cent and figure among the lowest on the market.

Thanks to the availability of a new rear-wheel drive version, the range has been extended to include a fourth length option (load capacity up to 22m³), new 3.5 and 4.5 tonne versions with twin rear wheels and gives greater scope to tailor-made conversions.

Joining New Master in 2010 is the facelifted, third-phase Traffic, which has been principally engineered to be more comfortable and driver-friendly. The dashboard has been redesigned to incorporate practical stowage spaces, while new equipment features normally associated with cars make life at the wheel even more comfortable. The 2.0 litre dCi version of Traffic Phase 3 also offers an appreciable reduction in fuel consumption.

The final model joining the fold is the New Kangoo Van Maxi, an extended wheelbase version (nearly 40cm) of the ever-popular Kangoo Van, available with either two or five seats. It offers a useful load volume of up to 4.6m³, a maximum load length at floor level of 2.90 metres, an even more modular interior, solid roadholding and a choice of fuel-efficient engines. This latest addition means that Renault is the only brand in Europe to market a compact van that is available in a choice of three wheelbases, ensuring there is a version to match every type of business use.

▲ Kangoo Van Maxi

At the same time, Renault is enhancing its business customer strategy with the launch of the Renault Pro+ network in 20 countries across the world. Essentially a one-stop shop, the new network offers practical, efficient solutions that are tailored to meet the needs of each customer, ranging from extended opening hours, servicing ramps up to 7.5t and a wide range of used and demonstration vehicles.

The Renault group's aim is to offer affordable, more ecologically-friendly mass-market solutions and, to this end, has extended the Renault eco² signature to cover its commercial vehicle range in a bid to highlight its ongoing efforts to reduce the environmental impact of its products. The Renault eco² signature now applies across the complete range of cars and commercial vehicles.

Furthermore, the first half of 2011 will see the introduction of an all-electric version of Kangoo Van with an operational range of 100 miles. This zero-emission van will be particularly suited to business users looking for an optimised carrying capacity of three cubic metres and will primarily be intended for use in and around built-up areas.

BMW 5-series voted 'most highly anticipated new car' of the year

BMW's new 5-Series saloon, set to go on sale later this month is the most highly anticipated new car of 2010, new research has revealed.

The German carmaker's latest model beat off stiff competition from Audi and Jaguar to win the poll, taking 20 per cent* of the vote in a recent survey on popular car leasing website, ContractHireAndLeasing.com.

As hub for car leasing deals, the website attracts personal and business users alike, who voted for the car they were most excited to see hit the showrooms.

Always a popular carmaker with the contract hire market, BMW's new offering was closely followed by the Audi A8 taking 14 per cent of the vote. In third place the new Jaguar XJ won 11 per cent of the vote.

The new 5-Series as the winning car can look forward to a warm reception from user-choosers and fleet buyers alike.

Always a hit within the contract hire market, in the course of five previous model generations, over-all sales of the 5 Series already amounted to more than 5.5 million. The latest model bases much of its interior charm on features first found in the luxury BMW 7 Series saloon, and as such the new model builds upon a reputation for quality. With a range of diesels and petrols to choose from, the 5-Series is a spacious saloon ideal for a wide range of demands, from long business trips to family duties. Strong residuals, solid performance and minimised emissions, the BMW 5-Series is set to push the boundary once again within its class.

Explains Richard Lawton, the website's spokesperson: "The new 5-Series will be the first in its class to gain Auto Start/Stop and will benefit from a host of BMW's EfficientDynamic technologies. In addition to that the new 5-Series is slightly larger than its predecessor yet it maintains strong performance and boosts fuel efficiency over the old model.

"With great driver aids including the introduction of Park Assist, along with Head-up Display, Night Vision, Lane Departure Warning, Lane Change Warning, Speed Limit Info and two rear entertainment packages available, the 5-Series is equipped to go too.

"We expect that by the time it launches in late March, the new 5-Series will become one the most popular for cars on the ContractHireAndLeasing.com website" he adds.

RUNNING NEWS AND RESULTS

AXE VALLY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

On Sunday Luke Reed took part in the second of the East Devon Aquathlon series organized by Exeter Tri Club.

The race was a 600m swim which Luke completed in 10:11 and a 5k run which Luke completed in 19:43, which includes transition. He finished 7th overall and 4th in his age category, a superb effort.

Harry Moore usually runs the Sherborne Castle 10K Multi Terrain event and this year was no exception. The main difference to other years was the lack of mud due to two dry weeks. Who would have thought that three weeks ago? Harry got around in 93:57 and even thought it was a tad hot in places.

HONITON with Judy Davey

HONITON runners took part in Axe Valley Runners' 20 mile multi-terrain challenging Grizzly last week with mixed results.

First home for Honiton and crowned 'first local man' was Kevin Hawker in a great time of 2 hours 41 and 9th place. Brian Charters followed him producing a fantastic time for his first Grizzly of 2:50 and 36th place. Brian is used to long distance off road running but he said this was the hardest run he has ever done and came as close as he ever has to giving up during a race.

Bruce Strawbridge is running brilliantly at the moment and his Grizzly was no exception. He came 208th in 3:20. Next came a flurry of runners all within 6 minutes of each other in the form of 308th Richard Harvey 3:29, 317th Richard Harris 3:30, 322nd Judy Davey 3:31, 343rd Roger Saunders 3:31 and 365th Ceri Oak 3:33. Guy Paddon was not far behind in 407th place and 3:36.

There followed a gap then until Greg Axsel came in 584th place and 3:48. This was his first Grizzly and he did pretty much as he expected. Maria Wadey who ran with hubby Chris followed closely behind came in 602nd and 3:49. Leisa Lavendar was happy with her 654th place and 3:53 time as she felt she hadn't done the required training.

Simon Hall managed to have someone knock into him at the bog and his glasses fell off. Another runner promptly stood on them and broke them which left Simon no option but to run in a haze. Broken glasses and runner did get reunited at the finish. This was a new experience for Simon and he did well to come 884th in a time of 4:11.

Warren Oak was next home in 1017th place and 4:22. Tracey Strawbridge was absolutely delighted to beat the 5 hour barrier and knock 12 minutes off last year's time to come 1313th in a time of 4:55. Tony Whiteley really struggled with a knee injury and came 1386th in 5:07. He has never run anything like that distance before but he still said he would return next year. There were nearly 1500 runners.

If you weren't quite brave enough to tackle the full Grizzly, there was always the Cub. This was in itself a gruelling 9 miles of multi-terrain hills and beach. Quite a few Honiton runners took part in this and didn't regret taking the 'easy' option for a minute.

Julian Gigg had only returned from skiing the previous day and changed his mind from doing the Grizzly to the Cub on his return. He was first Honiton runner home in 27th place and a time of 1:25. Steve Davey was next home feeling very relieved that he too had recently changed to the Cub. He was 46th in 1:32. Sarah Warren was next in and managed to confuse the commentator by entering as a Crewkerne member but running in her Honiton vest. She was 49th in 1:34 and was followed by Claire Pomeroy who was 58th in 1:36. Just one minute later followed Pippa Westall in 62nd place and Dennis Costello followed her in 96th place and 1:43. Next was Jennie Sleeman, 112th place in 1:45, Vanessa Glyn-Jones 166th in 1:56 and Pete Lyus, who took a very leisurely pace accompanying his daughter. He came in 219th in 2:09. There were 300 finishers.

Both races provided entertainment along the way with musicians in abundance who could be heard for miles across the valleys. The marshals and spectators were very encouraging and Jelly Baby stocks in local shops must be at an all time low. Thanks to everyone at AVR especially Garry Perratt but thanks to all the other hundreds of people who made the race possible.

Meanwhile other Honiton runners were out elsewhere. Heather Foundling-Hawker took part in the Dutchy Marathon in gale force winds. Nevertheless, she had a brilliant run and managed to come first lady in 3:06:02, 15 minutes ahead of the 2nd lady. Steve Boyes also had a great race finishing in 3:37:05.

Nicki Campbell, Louise Saunders and Jill Wood are all taking part in spring marathons and they took a trip to Bideford as part of their training. They ran the half marathon and were delighted with their times. Nicki was 448th in 1:50:45, Louise 527th in 1:55:16 and Jill 728th in 2:09:00 which was another pb for her.

Lily takes on the best in the UK

LILY Helston of Honiton Junior Running Club has been very busy over the last few months after qualifying to represent Devon at club and schools level. After obtaining a top three place at the Devon trials she then went on to race against the best in her age group at the South West heats and finished the race with a very impressive top five place. These consistent results secured her a place in the Devon Squad that raced in Birmingham at the weekend.

Crofton Park was the setting for the World Cross Country Selection and the National Cross Country Finals with the top 300 girls in the UK competing. Lily found herself warming up with Mo Farah the eventual winner and British 3k record holder who stopped to have a quick chat (see photo below).

With over 4000 runners and spectators in the park it was an impressive sight. The 3k course started with a testing long climb out into the distance, a sweeping bend back down towards the waiting crowds, then a long loop of the park ending with a fast down hill finish.

Lily lined up with 305 of the best under 13 girls in the UK. At only 12 Lily was one of the youngest athletes in the age category and her target this year was to finish in the top 150.

At the start of the race Lily found herself in the middle of the pack having been held up at the start; but by the time she came back down the hill her confidence growing, she started to push hard. The half way point saw Lily right on target to achieve her top half prediction. With only 1k left Lily realised she could improve on her position and gave it every thing she had and started moving up the field.

Lily finished 51st with over 250 athletes behind her and only 40 seconds behind the eventual winner. This was easily her biggest race to-date and was a credit to hard work and commitment with a superb run and still more to come.

Lily now has a short rest before she goes to London to represent the South West at the London Marathon Mini Event, again lining up with the fastest and best girls in what is probably one of the top running events in the world.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF by Helen Gaudie.

THE main club competed this Sunday, in good but firm conditions, for the March Medal.

Division One was won by Andrew Hellier with a nett 67, second place went to Chris Glover with a nett 71 and in third place was Charles Griffin with a nett 72.

Division Two was won by Andy Gabb with a nett 65 second place went to Tim Phillips with a nett 67 and in third place was Richard Orsman with a nett 69. The Ladies played their annual Bring-and-Win Stableford competition over 15 holes in cold windy conditions which reflected in the scores.

The winner was Barbara Cummings on the back nine ruling from Sandra Walker they both had 23 points.

Conditions were unexpectedly favourable for the Seniors' March Medal last Friday. The winner with 38 points Mike Tomes (17) had two birdie 2s on his card, but not to be outdone the runner-up John Mant (21) also bagged two birdie 2s in his score of 36 points.

Two players returned cards of 35 points and third place on the inward half ruling went to Iain Bain (13) with Derek Williamson (24) the unlucky player to miss out.

Mens Competitions

THIS week's report is all about the winners starting with the unreported victors from last weeks game. Division One had R.Reece, 38pts, ahead of D.Noar's 37pts who in turn beat A.Sharland's 37pts with a better back nine.

In Division Two it was I.Banfield's 39 pts that took the day from D. Morgan's 37 pts and R.Beck's 34 pts. In the Sun Am Quarter finals there were wins for E. and R.Reece, J.Netherway and D. Richards, D. Morgan and R.Graham and V. Wood and M. Watkins. Alongside these games the club played a Stableford Qualifier with Chris Earle romping home first with 38pts. Second with 37 pts was Tim Morris ahead of Alex Cave's 37 pts and Jim Wallis's 34 pts. Mention must also be made of Jason Goslings two on the par four third where he drove to within six feet of the pin and sunk the putt.

Mixed Report.

This week was the ever popular format of a Greensomes Stableford played in better weather than of late with some much appreciated sunshine. There was a very competitive edge between the 1st and 2nd places with Olwen Eaton and Stan Squire winning with 34 pts. 2nd place with 32 pts on c/b were Andrea Squire and Bill Eaton. 3rd also 32 pts were Ro Poole and Terry Dimond.

Ladies Section.

This week the Ladies played a 10 hole teams of four competition, Shotgun start, two scores to count Stableford.

The winning team were Jane Watts, Barbara Eastwood, Dot Grove and Betty Weedon with 48 pts. 2nd place with 47 pts were Barbara Mullett, Diana Gee, Anne Verplanke and Val Daniels. 3rd with 45 pts were Lady Vice Captain Sue Ritchie, Jennifer Pyle and Judith Newberry.

Senior Section

Has spring finally sprung? Some of the Seniors obviously thought so with a turnout of 82 players and some excellent scores in this weeks Stableford competition. The winner of Division One was Geoff Filtz with an impressive 41 points, followed by Fred Thomas on 39, John Bevan on 38, with Stan Squire and Ron Craig also in the prizes with 37 each. Division Two saw Alan Rowley head the field for the second time in a week with 41 points. Second place went to Jack Phillips with 40 points on countback from Brian Morrison. David Ive and Paul Ritchie completed the prize positions both with 39 points.

Rugby round-up

SALCOMBE 10pts HONITON 50pts

THE result of this game proved several points more than adequately. Firstly it demonstrated the gulf that existed between the two Devon leagues that played in the autumn. Secondly it showed that Honiton played rather in attack; and thirdly it indicates that their defence will also bear scrutiny.

Honiton would have entered the fray expecting a close encounter in view of the fact that the home side topped the South West Division of the Devon League, and this surmise would have been reinforced when a home centre found a gap in their defence and put his winger in at the corner before the game was ten minutes old.

The try remained unconverted and Honiton, who had started brightly enough, worked their way back into the game. They drew level a few minutes later when, having gone through the phases, they picked and drove close to the Salcombe line and scrum half Nex burrowed his way over from close range.

Honiton were looking the likelier bunch now, running back home tactical kicks to very good effect, although the Salcombe chasers were often found wanting. They took the lead around the end of the first quarter. After getting a turnover on half way, de Large chipped, full back Rice followed and gathered on the full, Hannay was up to take the off load and, although tackled, he was not held, and stretched to get the ball down. Webber converted and Honiton led 12-5 with twenty minutes gone.

Honiton were dominating the set piece and their next try came from a lineout peel. Having won ball at the tail, flanker Hannay was fed on the peel and, instead of running at the home midfield, he straightened and found space closer to the touch-line. Nex found his way into a supporting position, the off load came and he got in by the posts for Webber to convert and to take the score to 19-5 in Honiton's favour.

More was to come before the break. The home side won possession from scrum on their twenty two and kicked out of defence. Full back Rice gathered and fed flanker Rice. He made good ground, eventually finding Canniford in support, and he galloped to the posts, making Webber's conversion kick a formality.

Honiton had assumed complete control but, just before the interval, the game went to uncontested scrums that did them no favours for they were dominant at the scrums, nevertheless the score remained at 5-26 at the change round.

Now assured of parity at the set scrums,

Salcombe did their share of attacking in the second half, spending considerable time in the Honiton twenty two. Honiton's defence were up to the task however and, when substitute centre Barrett intercepted on halfway and galloped over close to the posts the result was put beyond doubt. Webber converted and Honiton were out of sight at 33-5 ahead.

Barrett scored again on the hour mark after winger Selway had chased a kick ahead to very good effect. Again the try was converted and, although Salcombe touched down out wide through their full-back, the five points conceded did little to dent Honiton's progress, and the score was cancelled out by a similar effort, touched down by Brad Spiller who finished a counter attack soon afterwards.

Salcombe were a spent force now and Honiton reached the half century in points scored before the end. They broke down the right and, after good work by Findlay, Rice and Pavey, Doidge got over but was adjudged to have been held up. His side won the attacking five metre scrum however and Barrett and Sampson combined to put the latter over.

This completed the scoring and the result really puts Honiton into contention for a play off place at the season's end.

EXMOUTH 3rd 37pts HONITON 2nd 24pts

THIS friendly game, arranged really at the eleventh hour, was a most enjoyable one with some good rugby being played by both sides. It was also worthy of note that the Honiton lineup included the Meadows father and son combination.

Honiton took an early lead with a try by Galling, with scrum half George Meadows' conversion kick rebounding from a post. (He was to hit the woodwork twice with place kicks during the game, something that would have probably been mentioned over that evening's late night cocoa.)

The home side then took the lead with a converted effort after a kick and chase, only for Honiton to regain it with an unconverted try by Linden Jones.

Exmouth then opened a gap, scoring a converted try and kicking a penalty goal, only for Honiton to level by the break with a try by centre Rob Ballard, converted by Meadows.

Two penalty goals early in the second half saw Exmouth edge away before a try by prop Isaac Dalton, again converted by Meadows took Honiton into a slender lead at 24-23.

At this juncture things looked set fair for Honiton for they had a lead and were playing well. They continued to do so but the home side had a couple of chances in the final quarter, and took them moreover, converting both tries to finally pull clear.

HONITON JUNIORS

HONITON U9s 20pts TAUNTON U 9s 35pts Honiton held their own until well into the second half against a very useful Taunton side, scoring tries through Jacob Wright (two), Ryan Woolacott and Jack Matthews. The visitors pulled away in the final few minutes however and sealed the win in spite of the good tackling stunt put in by Man of the Match Oliver Uperdime.

HONITON U 10s 15pts TAUNTON U 10s 10pts The Honiton under ten side played two games against Taunton, winning the first one with tries coming from Sam Phillips, Oliver Goodman and Jack Kantene.

HONITON U 10s 15pts TAUNTON U 10s 25pts Honiton lost the second game, although Jack Kantene scored his second try of the morning. Man of the Match award went to Oliver Goodman, with Tackler of the Match being awarded to Joe Whitworth.

HONITON U 12s 33pts TAUNTON U 12s 19pts The Honiton side finally edged clear after a close and entertaining encounter, with tries coming from Angus Meadows, Dion Warner, Kye Brooks, Liam Crawford and Steve Turner. Lewis Groves converted four of them and Man of the match was Ben Willis.

HONITON U 13s 52pts TOPSHAM 12pts This was the quarter final of the Devon Under Thirteen Cup and it is Honiton's name that goes into the hat for the semi final draw. Richard Webber, Wes Keyward, Usamah Elmagudy and Ben Kidson all scored two tries apiece, with George Hathaway kicking six conversions to complete the scoring.

BRIXHAM 36pts SIDMOUTH 3pts

ALTHOUGH, territorially speaking, this encounter was considerably more even than the score remotely suggests, Sidmouth's continuing inability to score tries during the periods that they are on top, meant that the result was beyond doubt by the halfway stage.

Although facing both slope and breeze in the first period, Sidmouth shaded the opening exchanges. Old habits then sadly reassessed themselves and conceded penalties gave Brixham a chance to set up an attacking position. They kicked one of the awards to the corner before winning the lineout and mauling their way over for an unconverted try.

Thus emboldened the home side continued on the offensive and, after Trim had seen yellow for slowing up possession, they scored twice in quick succession. Both tries were scored by their scrum half who first found space on the narrow side of a set scrum close to the Sidmouth line, and secondly, was on hand to complete a threequarter move, set up by a strike against the head at set scrum on halfway.

This try was converted, as was the next, scored by a centre who took advantage of some shoddy defending and galloped over from halfway.

This touchdown took the score to 24-0 in home favour before the game was half an hour old and left Sidmouth looking down the barrel at a cricket score. Credit to them for they did impose some pressure on the home line, although their only reward was a Dan Retter penalty goal.

It was of scant consolation too, for they leaked another converted try before the break, scored by the home full back after a good run by his blind side flanker. This last score put Brixham well and truly in control at 31-3 ahead at the half way stage.

Now with the breeze and slope in their favour, and under the impetus of some strong words spoken at the break, Sidmouth took the game to their opponents in the second period, taking up virtual residence in their twenty two and giving all the trouble they needed.

Pressure began to tell on the home side who lost a man to the bin but, although Salter, Chesterton and Seward all went close, and Pyne actually crossed the home line but could not ground the ball, they were unable to reduce the arrears.

Their pack was going well in the set scrums and providing a platform too, but tries continued to elude them and, at the last, Brixham attacked a final time and, after stretching the Sidmouth defence with some quick passing, their number eight crashed over out wide.

The unsuccessful conversion kick was the final action of the game.

PREVIEW

SATURDAY next is devoted to league rugby and, with the season drawing to a close, promotion and relegation issues are being settled.

SIDMOUTH are involved in a pivotal encounter with the visit of CHOSEN HILL FOR-MER PUPILS. These opponents lie one point and one place above the Blackmoor side in the South West League Division One (West), and a home win would really haul Sidmouth clear of relegation issues, dependant on other results.

I see that Sidmouth came out on top by the odd point or two on the Chosen Hill paddock earlier in the season. I take them to do so again, though not by too much, and to calm the nerves of their coaches and supporters a little in the process.

HONITON just need to keep winning if they are to end the season in a play off place. They too have a home game and really should end the day with a win against opponents, TAMAR SARACENS, a side who, in spite of gaining a place in the upper echelon of the Devon League, have not had all that an inspiring season thus far.

It is really difficult to assess Honiton's form however. In the last couple of months they have suffered postponements, concessions and opposition that is less than competitive, all of which make it difficult to judge just how well or badly they are performing. These opponents do have a large and lumpy eight however, and will have to be respected on this count alone.

Both the Honiton second side and the colts face opposition from Exeter Saracens, the latter away and the former at Allhallows. I expect both sides to have close encounters, with the Colts likely to edge to a win, for the Exeter based club is going well at the moment.

Sidmouth seconds travel to Okehampton, as do the Colts and it may well be that the journey wins the game, certainly for the latter. Sidmouth thirds play South Molton Unicorns at home.

HONITON AND AXMINSTER BOWLS

HONITON with Tony Broughton

THE Devon Under 21s took the long trip to the North Wiltshire Club, Chippenham, on Sunday 7th to play Wiltshire in a six rink match.

This turned out to be a really exciting battle worthy of any top Senior County Match. Trailng 20 shots at the halfway stage they managed to pull up level and it then became nip and tuck right to the finish.

With just three or four ends of overall play to complete, they forged ahead and came out the very respectable 131-124 winners.

Honiton were once again well represented by Kieran Daniels, Tom Fenegan, Jimmy Smith, Scott Eveleigh, Jordanna Broom, Hannah Morfey and Emily Hedges.

This weekend our youngsters had another chance to shine when they played a match against Somerset at Taunton Deane. This time it was a five-rink match and Devon won on three rinks. Josh Hadfield, who was on his homework bound journey from South Africa, was contacted at the last minute to play and managed to arrive on time to help with a splendid 117-90 victory.

Honiton's Scott Eveleigh, Kieran Daniels, Jimmy Smith and Hannah Morfey were once again in action with Hannah playing for Devon's Top Rink. There is one more game in this series when Devon meet the Welsh Under 21 side in April once again at Taunton Deane.

Janice Sharman and Pearl Hackwood were extremely unlucky to lose against Sue Harriott and partner (Madeira) in the semi-final of the County Pairs by just one shot, but a good effort by the pair with Janice entering these competitions for the first time, well done.

Ann Brown beat Dulcie Broughton in a very close match 21-19 to get her place in the final of the Harris Trophy Ladies Singles.

Now there is just one more week left in competition play for members to get their own place in a Final.

The Championship Singles Finals will be held on Tuesday 23rd at 7pm and the remainder over the weekend of 3/4th April.

In our friendly matches we had a respectable 80-59 win over Padbrook Park. Top Rink was Dave Tooley, Pearl and George Hoare, and Shirley Hiscocks at 27-11. The Ladies match against Sidmouth was lost by just 1 shot. Top Rink was Ann Brown, Judith Broom, Maureen Parsons and Marian Vessey at 22-15.

A mixed match against Crewkerne was a win on three rinks and a loss by one shot on the other. Our Top rink was John Ritchie, Rosemary Selvey, Sid Hattam and Dulcie Broughton.

AXMINSTER with David Harris.

THE Ladies lost their Foxlands County game against North Devon 64-93 with only Chris Hobbs, Ann Wright, Nola Stephens, and Margaret Crompton managing a win (26-22) but came back strongly to beat Mid-Devon 98-49 with three of the four rinks coming out on top. The successful rinks were Chris Hobbs, Ann Wright, Pam Hunter, and Margaret Crompton (35-11) Margaret Bartlett, Judith Moffitt, Jan Parsons, and Chris Barber (22-8), and Ann Clayton, Alison Glyde, Jean Kesterton, and Joyce Copp (24-11).

In the mixed friendlies we lost a very close encounter at Dawlish (53-56) despite winning two of the three rinks played - the winning rinks were Brian Downes, Margaret Bartlett, Jan Parsons, and Brian Parsons (22-14) and Ann Clayton, Chris Hobbs, Marion Harris, and David Harris (20-14).

We did however go on to enjoy a good win against Chardstock at home (83-31) with good wins by Les Monk, Chris Hobbs, Neil Solomon, and Margaret Crompton (34-8), Lilian Lovatt, Marion Harris, David Harris, and Brian Clark (30-12), and Ann Clayton, Pam Hunter, Bob Sherborne, and Jean Kesterton (19-11).

Unfortunately we have lost three games during this period owing to County commitments.

FOOTBALL RESULTS, FIXTURES AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

SIDMOUTH Town went goal crazy as they beat neighbours Budleigh Salterton 10-1, but second place Topsham Town were happy to settle for a 1-0 win against the University after last weeks dismal showing. The Tops scorer was their best player Darren Eshun and was their 50th league goal this term.

Willand Rovers dominated the first half at Hatherleigh Town where the led 2-0, but the North Devon side came back well to salvage a 2-2 draw. The on fire Dean Stamp had both the Willand goals.

Alphington avenged an early season defeat against Feniton winning 4-1. Sean Densham marked his return to the team with a hat-trick, and Liam Pollard also on his return scored the other goal. Alex Frankpitt netted a late consolation for a battling Feniton.

Seaton Town the Division 1 leaders scrambled a 1-0 win against Elmore and rated it a really scrappy match. Ben Ede was the scorer just before half-time.

Rivals Cullumpton Rangers won 3-0 at Sidbury having dropped points in midweek against Broadclyst. Sam Buckingham, Steve Kingstone and 16-year-old Danny Barnard had the Cully goals.

Beer Albion kept their promotion hopes on tap but their 2-1 win at home to Broadclyst was hard work. Headed goals from Mike Wheeler and Matt Rowson did the trick for the fishermen.

East Budleigh won the basement scrap at Culm Utd 1-0, Josh Sale getting the vital goal.

Westex Rovers sprang an upset in Division 2 when they held Tipton St John to 1-1. Shane Hogan had the Rovers goal and manager and keeper Matt Davey saved a penalty.

The Phoenix Club lost their 100 percent record in Division Three when beat 4-2 at home by rivals Sidmouth Town who take over as leaders.

Colyton won the other top game 5-1 against the Royal Marines with Callum Somers and Richard Tratt both scoring twice.

MATCH REPORTS

Crediton 2 Offwell Rangers 5

OFFWELL returned to league action after a four week lay-off and bagged a 5-2 victory at Crediton. Dan Edwards gave them an early lead and they looked like running up a cricket score but some sloppy play let Crediton square it up before half-time.

Changes were made in the break and a more urgent approach to the game saw Rangers on top. But the hosts took the lead with a fortunate goal against the run of play.

Offwell then took over with a Jack Knight goal and a hat-trick from veteran Karl Allen. Manager Nick Ogden was pleased with the three points and five goal haul away from home and said: "We really looked like a team that hadn't played for four weeks in the first-half but after the break we raised the pace, and although we were well below our best we ran out deserved winners. we all know we have to improve and hopefully with the weather turning we won't have anymore interruptions.

"On the plus side, when we made the changes it gave them (Crediton) a real headache, and that's why its important to have a strong bench. Karl gets my MoM for his three goals and an assist, not bad for an old feller at left back!"

Next up is Seaton at home and Ogden will be looking for the good form to continue. Last week Offwell had a friendly against Millwey Rise and Ogden would like to thank them for the run out.

South-West Peninsula League

DESPITE missing midfielders Alex Wheatley Ollie Highett and defender Richard Challis Axminster started off well and played some good football writes John Clements.

But some poor marking in the Tigers defence in the 36th minute allowed students' Jack Allman a free run to head home from a well taken free-kick.

Up until half-time Ax were well in the game and created two good chances to pull back the deficit but failed to hit the back of the net.

In the second-half their was not much between the two sides but the Tigers again conceded a similar goal to the first one with slack marking from a free-kick in the 70th minute allowed Payne put his cross in and the unmarked Arnold had a free head at goal to make the score 2-0.

There were two further goals, in the 85th minute when striker Tom Murray scored a good goal from outside the box, and Luke Davies getting a goal in the last minute of the game to make final score 4-0 to the students.

Tigers team: Higgs, Galloway, Macguire, Gage, Webb, Barfoot, Hancock, Cowling (65th min Tyrer) Gosling, Seaward, Emmett. MoM Leo Macguire. Axminster have no game next week, next game home v Galmpton Gents on Saturday, March 27th 3pm ko.

Ryan Billups gave Exmouth an early lead, but Offwell held out under huge pressure and then nabbed a late equaliser. Liam West had a fine match for the Ammies.

Topsham Town scuppered Colyton 6-0 with Dale O'Donaghue and Martin Tyrer scoring twice. Ryan Priscott and Joe Byrne netted singles. Axminster were unable to raise a side to face Torquay Utd, and the points awarded to the South Devon side means they are off the bottom rung on goal difference.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Honiton u9s v Cullompton (0-1) & West Hill Waps (3-6)

A GOOD all round team performance saw chances at both ends with Cullompton edging the first match thanks to a late goal.

Dylan Nicholas earned man of the match for his team effort capped by two well taken goals. A brilliant display in goal by Kelsey Pulman in both games gave the team much needed stability and Danny Ruel gave another fine display in defence.

Feniton Falcons U10s 7 Colyton 4

FENITON top scorer Ben Cathcart scored four and bagged the man-of-the-match award in an exciting game at Acland Park. Feniton went 4-0 up thanks to Cathcart (2), a great individual run and finish from Adam Tomkins and a skilful control and shot from Harry McMurtrie.

Colyton scored just before half-time and then struck twice more just after the break including an excellent looping shot from outside the area to make the score 4-3.

Cathcart and McMurtrie then added to their tally. Colyton scored again before Cathcart scored his best goal with an excellent drive.

Kentisbeare Colts U11 4 Brixington United 0

COLTS thoroughly deserved their thumping victory over Brixington. They dominated play throughout.

Three Toms all put their names on the scoresheet - Bunker bagged two and Peers and Bushby one apiece.

Honiton U15s 2 Exmouth Amateurs 1

THE visitors took an early lead, but, after a very scrappy 60 minutes Honiton finally upped their game and two well-worked goals from Talon Solf and Elliot Sanderson saw them take the three points.

Man of the match was Ryan Wakely, with Nathan Wallace and Rhys Andrews close behind.

Sidmouth U13 4 Feniton 6

LIAM Barribal completed his hat-trick with a 35 yard free kick as Feniton won an exciting match away to Sidmouth.

Barribal opened the scoring with a volley inside three minutes being set up by Jo Turl who also scored Fenitons second in the 11th minute. Two minutes later and Sidmouth were back in it with some neat passing and a great lob over the keeper. But it took just 30 seconds for Feniton to restore the two goal lead when Turl again set Barribal.

Sidmouth scored as the half-time whistle was about to go but in the few seconds that remained before the break Barribal ran into the box and was brought down by the keeper but Turl collected the loose ball for a simple tap in.

The second-half saw Feniton score again within three minutes when Jack Ainsworth headed home. Feniton stared to cruise, to their peril and Sidmouth applied the pressure resulting in two great goals to bring the score to 5-4.

But with just 12 minutes to go Ainsworth was brought down 35 yards from goal. Barribal stepped up to take the free kick but whilst everyone in the box was expecting the ball to be crossed in Barribal stuck it superbly leaving the Sidmouth keeper standing.

Seaton U8 4 Feniton 4

OWEN Barribal scored direct from a corner helping the Feniton Tigers come from 3-0 down to draw 4-4 in this very exciting game.

Seaton went 3-0 up after just nine minutes. In the 14th minute Barribal sent a long throw forward collected by Cody Tratt-Skinner who round a defender and shot home. Callum Crow scored a fine second for Feniton to make the half-time score 3-2. Barribal then scored direct from a corner to level at 3-3.

It was end to end after this and Seaton looked to have won when a low hard shot beat the keeper. But with seconds left Tratt-Skinner collected beat a defender and sent his fierce shot past the keeper.

Ben White made some great saves in the Feniton goal and there was some resolute defending from Andrew Bryson and Sam Pugh.

Perry Street League with Howard Larcombe

GOALS from Mark Vaughn, Matt Hall and Michael Knight gave Division Two leaders Millway Rise a 3-0 victory over their Division Two counterparts Hawkchurch in the Daisy Hutchings Cup second Round tie at First Avenue.

HONITON NETBALL LEAGUE

With Graham Ingram.

With just one week to go most of the major issues have been decided - only one promotion spot from division two has yet to be resolved - and that will be in the final week when Flamings B play Tip Top Trees Acorns for the second spot in the division!

Division One: Wasps 39 Visions 34, Tip Top Trees Oaks 20 Bo-Peeps 26, Keeley's Angels 31 Flamings A16.

ALL three games in division one had significance this week - with Flamings A, and Keeley's Angels playing for the top spot whilst Wasps still had a chance of a second place finish.

At the other end of the table Tip Top Trees Oaks were playing Bo-Peeps, with the winner staying up and the loser relegated. Unbeaten Angels met second placed Flamings A knowing that a win would make them champions whilst a point for Flamings would make them safe in second place. The game started evenly with Angels shading the first quarter 6-5.

With Cara Monaghan in good attacking form again they were 21-11 up going into the final session and it looked as though Flamings might not get the point they needed.

Sonia Yorke pulled them round as they just managed to do enough from their 16-31 defeat to do it - but Angels are champions and now hope to complete the season with a 100 percent record.

At the foot of the table it was all to play for and at quarter time Bo-Peeps led Oaks by 6-3. By half way Tip Top Trees were just a goal down at 10-11 thanks to some good defence work from Louise Garman. Faye Webb shot the Peeps back into a 17-15 lead in the third period leaving a tense final quarter in prospect.

The final result saw Bo-Peeps successful at 26-20 and looking forward to another season in division one whilst Oaks were relegated and facing the prospect of changing places with Tip Top Trees Acorns next season. Wasps were facing 'Visions and needed to win and hope Flamings lost heavily to retain any chance of a top two finish. Although they managed a win, by 39-34, they cannot finish above third - unless they beat Angels by 129 goals next week! Tonight they opened up a seven goal lead in the first quarter before 'Visions staged a late rally to close the gap to five. Nicola Field once more played well for Wasps whilst Pam Taylor was the 'Visions star.

WITH CHRIS YOUNG

THE Evening Division One saw the top places confirmed. Musbury's point at Awliscombe meant they finished the season undefeated but their total of six draws left them two points short of Beer so congratulations to Beer, the Evening Champions, and to Musbury in runner-up place. Awliscombe were already assured of third place regardless of this match result. Behind them there is one match to go which will decide whether West Hill or Sidbury are assured of Division One games next season. Sidbury won 5-3 at home this week to keep maintain their challenge. Wednesday's game at Upttery will decide.

In the second division Awliscombe B won 7-

HONITON GYMNASTS SCOOP FOUR MEDALS

GYMNASTS from Honiton Gym Club were on winning form again at the weekend, scooping four medals and recording a whole host of other impressive results.

Once again Buster Tutchter and Ashley Wallis finished the competition victorious, taking the gold medal in the grade 2 boys' pair competition with a score of 24.05. This secured their place in the national finals in Stoke-on-Trent in May.

Buster was also on top form with mixed pair partner Charlotte Bevis, taking silver in the grade 1 mixed pair event, scoring 24.13. And in the same event, a very promising first performance together was also put in by Megan Quick and Callum Abbott who finished in fifth position with a score of 22.55.

Charlotte Bevis was also in action in the Grade 2 girls' pair competition with partner Megan Moore. They showed huge improvements since their performance at the Bristol Open three weeks ago, scoring 24.50 and finishing in the bronze medal position, against 25 other girls' pairs.

Honiton's final medal of the competition went to grade 3 boys' pair Jacob James and Adam Fullick, who took the bronze medal in their category.

The pair, in their first competition together, put in impressive performances in their balance and dynamic routines, and only a lack of time together prevented them from coming even higher up the medals. They scored 22.75 and 24.50 in their two routines.

Full results:

Grade 1: Buster Tutchter and Charlotte Bevis, mixed pair: 2nd
Callum Abbott and Megan Quick, mixed pair: Sharna Curly, Becky Lawrence, and Becky Fullard, girls' trio: 4th Charlotte Drawer and Corinna Challis, girls' pair: 10th.

Grade 2: Ashley Wallis and Buster Tutchter, boys' pair: 1st, Megan Moore and Charlotte Bevis, girls' pair: 2nd Mylissa Jones, Danni Hartland and Charlotte Hartland: 4th.

Grade 3: Adam Fullick and Jacob James, boys' pair: 3rd, Jess Iley, Cerys Mack and Charlotte Bowen, girls' trio: 5th.
